

Counselors' Corner

November 2022

This month's character trait: Citizenship

So What is It?

Citizenship is shown by positively contributing to the community while respecting authority and the law.

Why is it Important?

Being a good citizen is important because by obeying rules and helping our community, we make the world we live in a better and safer place.

Citizenship in a Digital World

As virtual students, we need to show digital citizenship to help ourselves as well as our classmates learn and become successful.

Terms to Know about Citizenship in a Digital World

Digital Citizenship: being able to use technology & the internet safely and responsibly

Digital Citizen: someone who uses information technology to be a part of society

Digital Etiquette: treating others the way you would want to be treated online: with respect and kindness

Digital Footprint: a trail of little bits of information that someone leaves behind every time they are online

Cyberbullying: the use of technology (computer, phone, tablet, etc.) to purposely be unkind to someone
