Florida Virtual School® Announces 2016 Principal of the Year

Orlando, FL (Jan. 28, 2016) – Florida Virtual School (FLVS®), a statewide public school district in the state of Florida, recently announced the FLVS representative for the 2016 Florida Department of Education’s Principal Achievement Award for Outstanding Leadership. Representing FLVS as Principal of the Year is Brianne Harris.

Harris, an instructional leader/principal for the FLVS science team, will compete against her peers from school districts across the state. The Florida Department of Education’s Principal of the Year is chosen from district nominees by a selection committee. The award recognizes exemplary principals for contributions to their schools and communities, and honors those who have spearheaded initiatives to increase student performance and promote safe learning environments.

“I am very humbled to represent such a dynamic group of leaders as well as Florida Virtual School,” stated Harris. “I look forward to showcasing the incredible work our organization does to support our students and our families across the state of Florida. I am truly honored to be representing Florida Virtual School at the state level for the 2016 Principal of the Year.”

Harris is a resident of Ocala, FL.
